

cmbc family camp

Take a leisurely stroll along the beach with a friend or loved one. Roast marshmallows over a late night campfire while sharing life stories with a new friend. Gather around a picnic table with one or two families and play cards for a few hours on a warm sunny afternoon. Meet new people at a dessert social Friday night. Get together with fellow campers to sing praises to the God of all creation Sunday morning. All this and more at the annual CMBC family camp.

registration fees

- Cost is $60 for the weekend, which includes two nights. Make checks payable to CMBC. Cancellations must be reported to Rolynd Puckett four days prior to camp.
- When you hand in the registration form, tell Rolynd if you want additional nights before or after Family Camp. After the assignments are made you will be contacted so you can make those additional reservations.
- $5 required for each additional vehicle per night, pay at campground.
- Maximum of eight people per campsite.
- One RV per campsite.
- Additional tents can be used without additional costs.
- You are expected to provide your own camping equipment and meals.

amenities

- Fort Stevens offers fishing, beachcombing, swimming, hiking trails, wildlife viewing, bicycle trails, an historic shipwreck, and an historic military area.
- Electrical hook-ups and water (no sewer)
- Fire pit (some have grates)
- Picnic tables
