Read Genesis 2:18-25

What are the words “suitable helper” getting at, and how do they describe what we all need to be fully human?

In verses 21-22, what sticks out about how the woman was made, and what do you think the message is for us?

In verse 23, we get a very enthusiastic, poetic expression from the man. What do you think this is meant to communicate, and how should it inform our relationships with the opposite sex?

What is verse 24 all about, and what is it teaching us about marriage?

Finally, what does verse 25 say about God’s intended vision for the kind of relationships we are to have?
