

Discussion Questions
Moses: Learning to Trust, Finding Deliverance
Week Five

1. What were the major time markers of your life?
Is there any event that marks a “before and after” line for you?
2. Have you ever waited for something patiently, but then the news of its arrival felt sudden?
What was that moment for you?
3. What emotions do you think the people of Israel felt when they received the news that they were being set free?
4. What are some places in your life where you feel more like a commodity or an asset than a person?
How have you been guilty of doing the same to others?
5. Pastor Jeremiah talked about two kinds of deliverances: 1. The deliverance from bondage and death (coming out of Egypt) and 2. The deliverance patterns, mindsets, and habits of the bondage and death (getting Egypt out of you). Which is more relevant to you at this moment?
6. It has been said that the call to remember is the most often ignored command in scripture.
What are the tools and practices to remember what the Lord has done for you?
Are there any that you can implement in this season of your life?
